

Companion Heavy Duty (S)

If you need to hammer on the knife it needs to be very strong. We have thought this through with a three-layer thick polymer molding, and an extra thick blade, which literally, stands up against the beating.

Properties:

Companion Heavy Duty is the optimal companion for rigorous adventures and challenges. The robust handle and the 27° edge angle give it maximum edge resiliency. The blade is extra thick (3.2 mm) to be able to withstand all kinds of pressure and it's made of stainless steel, which keeps an edge longer and doesn't need as much knife care.
