

Statement – -40°C

By this letter, Sordin Värnamo AB confirms that Sordin T2 has completed Low temperature test at -32°C in accordance with MIL-STD-810H, Method 502.7 Low Temperature, Procedure II, Testing was conducted at the Element UKAS accredited laboratory.

Additional testing has been performed according to a modified MIL-STD-810H at -40°C, Method 502.7 Low Temperature, Procedure II. In this this modified version the temperature transit has been conducted at shorter timeframe.

Conclusion

Test object passed the Low Temperature Test at -40°C.

No damage or degradation was detected after completed test. Function test was conducted before and after test. No degradation of function was detected

Värnamo September 26, 2024

.....

Jonas Nilsson

Sordin AB